Greetings Smart Grid Interoperability Panel Members! January 15, 2010

The SGIP Governing Board announces their newly-appointed officers!

By a unanimous choice of the SGIP Governing Board, congratulations to the following SGIP Governing Board officers:

- Vice chair: John F. Caskey, senior director of the Power Equipment Division at the National Electrical Manufacturers Association
- Secretary: George Bjelovuk, managing director for marketing, research, and program development at American Electric Power

All three officers will serve one-year terms. Now numbering 23 members, the SGIP Governing Board will grow to 27 members after an election to fill four open slots is held later this month.

"NIST is delighted that that these high-caliber individuals have volunteered to fill the leadership positions on the SGIP Governing Board," said George Arnold, NIST's national coordinator for Smart Grid interoperability. "We are grateful to John McDonald and his fellow officers for investing their talent, time and energy to guide the SGIP in helping the nation transform its electricity infrastructure."
