Smart Grid Interoperability Panel

January 21, 2010

Greetings Smart Grid Interoperability Panel Members!

Congratulations to the following category-elected SGIP Governing Board members:

- Category 4 - Electric Transportation Industry Stakeholders: Rich Scholer of Ford Motor Company brings over 40 years of electrical system design with the last 17 years designing Electric, Hybrid, Fuel Cell and Plug-in Hybrid vehicles. He is Chair of the SAE J2293 Task Force for communication between Plug-In Vehicles and the Utility Grid and a member of PAP 11.

- Category 6 - Electric Utility Companies - Municipal (MUNI): Stephen Muchlinski, Smart Grid Manager with Tacoma Public Utilities, is responsible for the planning, management and implementation of business processes and technologies related to the advancement of information systems for the electric and water utilities. Stephen comes from the utility industry with executive-level experience that includes about 30 years working for companies like the NAES Corporation, Puget Sound Energy and ESCA (Areva T&D).

- Category 8 - Electricity and Financial Market Traders (Includes Aggregators), Chuck Shih, Founder and Managing Director of Edge Holdings LLC, has extensive experience in standards development, and is a pioneer and author of a number of IETF (Internet Engineering Task Force) standards, including RFC 3335, which codified the secure sending and receiving of business documents over the Internet. Chuck has 25 years of technology engineering and product development experience, and he is the co-founder of a $50 million technology fund.

Please be aware that Category 22 – Venture Capital resulted in a tie so a runoff election is in progress between Scott Ungerer and Carter Williams. We will advise you of the results early next week.
