

Cyber Security (CSWG) Assessment of PAP-10

Status: Approved

Were CSWG requirements met? N/A

Comments: The information contained within the NAESB Energy Usage Information document does not present requirements for communication, storage, or access to energy usage information. The document presents field data that is contained within energy usage information. Addressing cybersecurity is outside of the scope of this document, as object models need to accommodate, but not specify security technologies.